

Joint Statement

The 21st Zhejiang International Trade Fair for Textile and Garment Industry (ZJTEX) will be held concurrently with China Knitting Brands Innovation Design Week (CKIW Expo) at Yiwu International Expo Centre on 8-10 June 2021.

Organized under the same roof, the two exhibitions will provide an international business platform which covers the entire knitting industry chain, integrates research & development to design, equipment to technology, raw materials to underwear, and apparel for the industry development. The twin expos aim at staging a professional knitting industry event for the entire industry chain to display technology, promote brands, release market trends, and discuss hot topics at high-end forums!

This is an evolution in the knitting industry! ZJTEX will join hands with CKIW Expo to explore the future and new opportunities with the entire industry on 8-10 June 2021.
